Team, Inc. Announces Alignment Into Business Groups

SUGAR LAND, Texas, June 24, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Team, Inc. (NYSE:TISI) today announced the alignment of its business activities into business groups designed to drive the Company's next phase of continued long term growth. Effective July 1, 2013, Team's operations will be organized into three business groups, Inspection and Heat Treating Services, Mechanical Services, and Quest Integrity Group. Each business group will be led by a Business Group President, who will report directly to Phil Hawk, Team's Chairman and CEO.

The organizational changes are expected to provide greater focus and alignment of resources to address customer needs, enhance execution and improve growth opportunities across the entire organization. Each business group will be supported by their own field service group and technical, commercial, manufacturing, and operations support, where appropriate. The repositioning of Quest Integrity Group within Team reflects both its significant growth since joining the Team family nearly three years ago and Team's commitment to continue expansion of its capabilities and innovative new technologies.

Art Victorson, 51, is President, Inspection and Heat Treating Services. Art joined Team in 1997 and most recently served as Senior Vice President, TCM Division. Current revenues for this business group are approximately $375 million.

Pete Wallace, 50, is President, Mechanical Services. Pete joined Team in 1988 and most recently served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Current revenues for this business group are approximately $275 million.

"Team's revenues have grown at more than a 20% compound average growth rate for the last decade. Our expanding business size and scale now enables us to bring more focus, dedicated resources, and technology applications to the attractive future growth opportunities available in each of our business groups," said Phil Hawk, Team's Chairman. "We expect this increased focus to result in enhanced service capabilities and improved support to our customers."
